Treaty Clause Proposed.

To this end a reservation was proposed that no cause involving the United States should be submitted to the court save by treaty.

To allay fears on the Republican side, Senator Lenroot had already suggested a reservation providing that a cause involving America could be submitted only with the approval of congress by joint resolution, which would require not two-thirds but only a majority vote of each chamber. Mr. Lenroot and other pro-court leaders, including Senator Walsh and others on the Democratic side, were of the opinion that such a reservation was not necessary.

DESERTED FOR REFUSING RUM

Mrs. Isbell coughed on the first cigaret and firmly refused to drink liquor, she declared. So her husband abused her, called her a poor sport, and left her, the bill stated.

Mrs. Isbell said her husband has an income of $50,000 yearly. Her attorney, Benjamin Davis, of Charles E.
Erbstein's office, will go into court today to ask that she be given $500 a month alimony for herself and two children, Marion, $ years old, and Marjorie, 5.

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE: FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 1926

About two years ago Isbell began to drink heavily, Mrs. Isbell said. When he falled to induce her to go on sprees with him he disappeared for days at a time on drinking bouts, she charged. The Isbells were married in January, 1910, and lived together until last September, according to the bill.

In another divorce bill filed yester-day, Mrs. Marianne Lo Bello, 365 North Drake avenue, charged that her husband had become possessed with evil spirits, which directed him to indulge in high stakes gambling. She declared that Joseph Lo Bello, clothing manufacturer at 844 West Adams street, beat her at the orders of the spirits which possessed him. She asked alimony, declaring her husband was wealthy and had a $10,000 yearly

FOR each day in town there is a full page in your engagement book-you shop a bit, walk a bit, tea, dine, dance. And for each hour there is just the right Silk, some fabric which will best express the time, the place and feminine charm.

Wander through our section and choose a day of Silks. First thing in the morning you will slip into a mandarin coat made of real Chinese Tussah, Rajah or Damask, disproving the theory that East and West will never meet.

For a trip to town the clever tweed-printed Crepes will take first place. This Crepe is printed in herringbone and other tweed patterns—an enchanting idea. Or, you might choose a plaited skirt of plaid Surah to be worn with a trim jacket of Taffeta.

For afternoon you waver between a rich Hindu Crepe (the East again!) and a Crepe printed in a futurist pattern. There is a fascinating collection of these ultra-modern Silks and in them is the same sense of motion that distinguishes all that is of the new era.

Down Came the Gangplank And Off Stepped a Boot!

Russian Boots are making their appearance with the arrival of each new Steamer, thereby adding an exotic bit of Eastern color to Western dress. The "Wellington," which we are just presenting, is our version of the Russian Boot, trim in its fit and beautiful in its application of smooth leathers.

Choose It in Opal Gray, Sauterne or Black

The "Wellington" in Opal Gray or Sauterne Kid is $28.50. In Black Patent Leather or Black Kid with Patent Leather cuff, $25.

A Sleek New Velour Reboux Is Featuring Now in Paris

The French Salon Introduces "Antelope"

You will think it a new kind of felt when you see it. It is really a velour, made by a special process to give it the lovely smoothness that justifies its name. It is under the envied sun of Reboux's favor this very moment, and this Hat follows her lines, too the sharp turnup of the brim, the rippling crown, the grosgrain cocarde. Isn't there something almost magic in this swift translation of fashion?

If You Pride Yourself on Buying Your Furs Wisely Consider the Coat Shown and Others

If you have been interested in Fur Coats, you have doubtless, in accordance with careful buying plans, "shopped about" a great deal to find the best value. You will therefore have little trouble in recognizing the worth of these reduced to the almost absurdly low figures below:

Hudson Seal, $195—illustrated above. It is our own make, with all the inherent quality to be expected of our workmanship; and you may choose one trimmed with either dyed squirrel or slate-dyed fitch. The value is most uncommon.

Natural Muskrat, $195-These, too, are worth much more. Some have a self border applied to give the effect of contrast.

Dyed Lamb, $75—Made tomboy style, like the popular raccoon, with wool plaid skirt lining and satin yoke. Excellent for street or campus wear, and a remarkable value at this lowered price.

LIVERMORE CLEANS UP $500,000 ON WHEAT, CHICAGO PIT RUMOR

Deals in about 8,000,000 bushels of wheat are reported to have yielded a profit of close to $500,000 for Jesse L. Livermore, New York stock and grain trader, who has covered his "short lines" by buying at recent low prices. For the last several days, brokers usually credited with acting for him, have been buying wheat when many traders, previously active on the bull side, had sold and decided to take the short side, playing the wheat market for a decline.

May wheat, low as $1.68% on Monday, and as high as $1.72% yesterday, later advanced to a high of $1.76%. Yesterday's close at $1.76 to $1.75% was a net gain of 3%c a bushel

Cite Tariff, Federal Reserve.

Parity, protection and peasantry were three words that were as thick in the day's debate as plums in a pudding. Speaker after speaker brought up the protective tariff, the federal reserve, the railroad transportation act, and the immigration act, which have protected industry, business, the banks, the carriers and labor.

They declared that unless agriculture gets some machinery to keep the farmer from losing money every time there is a bumper crop, something is going to happen out here in the golden west. They waxed vehement as they voiced a possibility that, if the farmer gets the cold shoulder at Washinston, the agricultural states of the Mississippi valley, strong protectionist and toward free trade or tariff for revenue only.

Dominating Space, Together with Complete Sales Story, Brings Big Results to Studebaker

THIS Want Ad campaign, recently run by the Studebaker Sales Co., 2030 S. Michigan Ave., is a splendid example of sales resourcefulness in a time of depression in the automobile business.

Mr. E. M. Abbott, advertising manager of the Studebaker Sales Co., said: "At the time we ran this campaign there was a general depression in the sale of used cars, but by using greater space, namely column ads, we were able to counteract this market condition. We had twenty-five cash in hand prospects each day, for a week, during and after the days on which we used column ads in The Tribune's Want Ad Section.

"For a long time we had been in the habit of using ads 125 agate lines deep about four days a week. Recently the used car market has been suffering from such a marked depression that these ads were not pulling. We concluded that something had to be done; we would either have to stop advertising altogether, or else use dominating space. A Tribune representative suggested using column smashes.

"We decided to try it out and ran a test campaign. We cut out all advertising for four days, then we ran a full column smash every day for four days at a time, to prove to ourselves the efficiency of large space over small space. We had an average of 25 prospects a day, but here are the results in actual sales:

Date Number of Cars Sold

Ad Ran - Sat., Dec. 19 - 4

Ad Ran - Sun., Dec. 20 - 6

No Ad - Mon., Dec. 21 - 4

No Ad - Tues., Dec. 22 - 3

No Ad - Wed., Dec. 23 - 4

"Needless to say, I learned something from that campaign about the use of large space."

Dominating use of Want Ad space, together with a complete and detailed description of each car for sale solved Studebaker's used car problem. Perhaps we can help you, too. Tribune representatives are qualified to counsel advertisers in regard to the judicious use of Want Ad space for greater results. Ask a man to call—Superior 0100—Local 375.

ing the beauty parlors . . . eternally and drugs, which become less than use brooding . . . wondering, worrying. Where had her beauty gone? Her glorious complexion? Surely it was not age that lined her face. Why, she was a young woman, and she wanted to live. . . .

There are millions of women in the world today who need much more than beauty-parlor beauty-who, if they would correct that great affliction-constipation -would find color in their cheeks instead of pallor, renewed energy in every fiber of their beings, and a new wonderful freedom from sick headaches. What a blessing it is that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings sure, safe, permanent relief from this vicious disease.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings sure relief because it is ALL BRAN. As it journeys through the body its fiber remains unchanged. Doctors call it a bulk food. ALL-BRAN sweeps. cleans and purifies the intestine. It stimulates the flow of digestive juices. It absorbs and carries moisture into the intestine and prompts it to natural, healthy action. You never have to increase the amount eaten.

WHAT a forlorn figure she is . . . haunt- How different from habit-forming pills unless the dose is increased. Often they are actually harmful. Why take chances with them when there is a safe, pleasant way to be rid of constipation?

If eaten regularly, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief from constipation or your grocer refunds the purchase price. In chronic cases, eat ALL-BRAN with every meal. Its delightful nutty flavor makes it good as a cereal. Serve with milk or cream alone or with fresh or preserved fruit; sprinkle over other cereals or cook with hot cereals: use in soups, or in the recipes given on every package.

Words of warning!

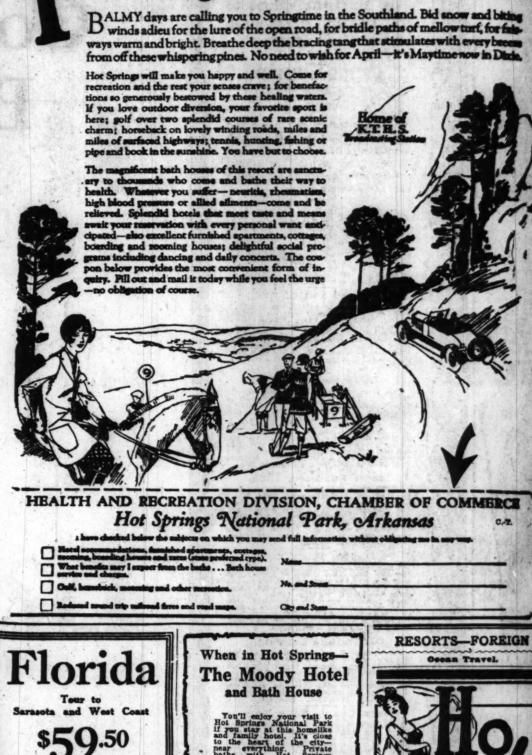

Insist on Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Only ALL-BRAN-a 100 per cent bran product-brings sure results. Part-bran products are of doubtful value-sometimes useless. Doctors recommend Kellogg's ALL-BRAN because they know what it will do.

Kellogg's is the original ALL-BRAN. At all grocers. Served in leading hotels and restaurants.

"Hargrave," he said, "we can't talk here like men. There's something a artificial about the atmosphere. I feel choked. Come outside for a time." Hargrave rose with some reluctance to his feet. He was not at all sure he ared to indulge in plainer speech. Nevertheless, Gorse was so terribly in arrest, he had no alternative. They procured their hats and coats and made her way on to the terrace, now almost deserted.

I have been full of sympathy for every one. The seest maxim of Christianity has been a reality with me, because it was so that I could for their welfare, always found my happiness in service.

I've suddenly become brutally selfish. The other will all come back, but to weeky spark of feeling I have is centered on one person. It isn't seether happiness, you know, Hargrave. They paused for a moment. In the easerness of his outburst Gorse's and had tightened upon his friend's arm and he had brought him to s dstill at the edge of the gardens. Around them was a little oasis of sweetling, violet darkness. They could just hear the music from the orchestra at the Café de Paris; the lights on the hills were like pinpricks of fire. Har-rave feit his wave of selfishness pass, felt the stirring of a deep sympathy for the man who seemed to him to be suddenly aged and into whose clear and fearless eyes had crept the shadow of a new apprehension.

"I should ask her and get it over, Philip," he advised.

"I mean to, I mean to almost at once. And yet, in a way, I'm afraid."

"I know she likes you very much—admires you, too. From the pulpit have been one of the friends of her loneliness."

Gorse took his friend's arm and held it tightly.

"It may hurt us both, old fellow," he said, "but I must have the truth."

"Then, for God's sake, have it," was the impassioned reply. "You know the list, you know where I found her, you know with what object I brought must here. You too know—you are one of the few men who do—how small a secaulty women have found in my life. I figure to the world as a selfish secause I am rich and because I have remained a bachelor. I've kept from necessity. I should have preferred marriage, and children, and all he rest of it. I couldn't do it. I have tried, but I have never been able to feel the right way about any woman—a phase, I suppose, Philip, of that uranism with which you taunt me.

And now, when it is practically all over with me, to add another torment he pain I can't help suffering in the quiet times, I have found just that feeling I have wanted all my life. There! improved.

Argrave, in no humor for the young people's dance to which he was simulated, returned to the Sporting club to find the roulette rooms to the bar crowded, and the serious gambling of the evening comes in the chemin de fer room. A functionary hurried forward to offer the serious at the high table. While he was hesitating, he felt a light touch shoulder. He turned around to face the marchesa, paler it seemed than usual, a somber fire of discontented passion in her large eyes.

Was a delicate but scanty sheath of turquoise blue, her corn colored to brushed plainly back from her forehead in a manner which a famous had made fashionble.

Organist of Merit,
His Recital Reveals
BY EDWARD MOORE.
Charles M. Courboin's recital program at Kimball hall last night indicated that his personal tastes in organ music are likely to outweigh theories of what constitutes a popular concert. Not that his tastes are not sensitive and seemly, but they would seem to run in the direction of the complex rather than the straightforward in music.

Taking him on that basis, he is a concert organist well worth careful attention. Give him a work that contains many delicate outgrowths, particularly 18 it seet in each in a concert organist well worth careful attention.

tains many delicate outgrowths, particularly if it is set in a tonal volume running from soft to medium, and be plays superbly, keeping each strand distinct and unblurred with much variety or color, and fine balance. One can hardly say the organ is ever an instrument of emotional expression, but Mr. Courboin keeps it from growing cold. Only when the full blast of all the stops is required does he permit his manner to grow slightly indiffered, ent.

This, at least, was the impression gained from hearing him play works by Cesar Franck, Grasse, Widor, and Bach.

Indian Pudding with Dates.

Why has Indian pudding fost out? It is a pudding easy to make, although the proportions might easily seem unreasonable to one having no knowledge of rice pudding, and how much milk and how little rice is required for that. Perhaps this pudding lost favor somewhat because with some of the additions, like raisins or molasses, it has a strpng flavor after the long cooking. Perhaps people did not like the sound or looks of "baked Indian," a term which some have used for it with no compuncitions or hesitations.

The capacity of the Casino was taxed to its limit yesterday for the luncheon which the Drama league gave for Mrs. Samuel Insull. The tables, which filled the ballroom and an adjoining room, were decorated with some of the Casino's renowned collection of table ornaments and figurines. The long speakers' table was set with large crystal baskets, small black and white figures, and a centerpiece of white shell flowers. Mrs. Insull, who was wearing beige velvet and a brown hat trimmed with sable, was seated to the right of the president of the Prame. Horace J. Bridges, who spoke after the luncheon, was at her left.

Others at the main table were Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman, who was wearing a marcon faille gown with a matching hat of velvet, Mrs. Arthur Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Richards, Mrs. Richards in black and wearing a smart tri-cornered hat; Mrs. Horace Bridges, Miss Marion Gheen, and James Forbes, the playwright. But, if you first apply a wash rag or towel wrung out of hot water and then apply some cold cream you will contribute a good deal of comfort to the business of extracting the hairs. It is a popular belief that if you remove these hairs they will come in double the length and coarseness. They really do not, however. You do not have to do the tweezing often enough, for one thing, and then it enough, for one thing, and then it has been established by scientific investigations that the hairs do not thicken and coarsen. They will return in time. But so long as you have the tweezers, or the price of a new pair, you can just pluck them

A Lost FORTUNE-

A Strange ACCIDENT— A Brave GIRL-

"You remember how carefully Dad always drove his car, don't you?" Ethel asked.

"I remember he was a careful driver, yes. Had to be, in a way-seeing he was Judge," replied Mr. Briggs.
"Well, then," said Ethel earnestly, "didn't it ever strike you that there was something queer about his accident?"

This accident is the crux of the story. At the death of Judge Marland, Ethel, a daughter by his first wife, returns East. She finds Aunt Myra, a sister of the Judge's second wife tyrannizing over her step-brothers and step-sisters. Then Aunt Myra disappears. Trust funds handled by the Judge also vanish. this correspondent to fiddle with the keys, fumbling for some new phrases with which to state that Johnny Dundee's end is not yet.

Johnny will fight a fellow named Glick tomorrow night. Joe Glick is the whole name and it's his regular name and not just one he picked up out of the phone book or a funny paper. Joe Glick is just a young fellow from Brooklyn, with a couple of years of professional fighting behind him. He hits a nice clout and he doesn't let them hit him very often. He has whipped a lot of good boys. So this Glick is not to be laughed off and that's the reason for this wheeling and hovering over Johnny Dundee at the present moment.

Weissmulier, Arrie Boyg, and Ethei Lackie, of the Illinois Athletic club, Chicago, established three new world's swimming records in exhibitions against time at the Toledo club here tonight. It must be a couple of years since Johnny won a fight. Anyway, his last great fight, and probably the greatest fight, and probably the greatest fight he ever made, was the one in which he skashed open the war wounds, of Eugene Criqui, the French soldier, and won the featherweight championship.

That bout, fought in 1923, ruined Criqui, but it did not leave much of Dundee. He swells up with fat bedreven fights and simmers down to the tween fights and simmers down to the contract figure as though he were pneumatic. He goes around fighting young fellows who punch him in the face and belabor him on the flanks but nevertheless he goes around fighting long after boys who were young with him have yanked the mantle off the same and hid them down to hallucinations.

Gorman rose to supremeheights, winning the title before his own home crowd, before whom he had twice failed to show impressive form in competitions of international importance.

Farrell Claims Foul, The new champion dethroned Clas-Thunberg of Finland, who gained his title at the Olympic races at Chamoix in 1924, and gave his utmost here dur-ing the last three days in a vain at-tempt to prevent his crown from go-ing to the Canadian, Gorman won the 440 and five mile events.

O'Nell Farrell, Chicago flash, was Gorman's most dangereous opponent today. Both had 80 points when they went into the final field. In the final of the 440, Farrell fell on the first turn when he was leading and was eliminatel. He claimed he was fouled, but the judges ruled that the race stood as skated. Gorman finished first, E. Murphy of Chicago second, and L. Morris, New York, third.

Wahl featured trading in Chicago stocks yesterday, establishing its third gain this week after a long period of inactivity and closing with an advance of 1% to 12%. The annual report, which will be submitted to stockholders next week, is understood to show only a small operating deficit for the year, compared with heavy losses suffered in 1924. Omnibus moved up 1% to 17% after a turnover of about 2,500 shares.

Stewart-Warner advanced %, as did Armour "B." The annual statement of Stewart-Warner for 1925 shows net earnings for the company and its subsidiaries of $7,544,089, equal to $12.57 a share on 599,990 shares outstanding, compared with $3,501,106, or $5.84 a share, in 1924, and $6,728,119, or $14.16 a share, on 474,980 shares outstanding. The report indicates net earnings of $2,171,753, equal to $2.61 a share, during the last quarter of 1925. On small sales, gains were: Great Lakes Dredge, 5 points; Middle West Utilities, 4 points; Deere preferred, 1%, and Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee, a point. Electric Refrigeration started upward at a fast pace, touching a new high on the current movement at 85%, but large blocks of stock appeared around that figure and forced the price back to 82%. Foundation Company Foreign and Sears Recbuck [new] scored moderate gains. Otto Eisenlohr as vanced over a point. Speculative interest in the public utilities was limited to a few issues, strength of American Gas and Electric and American Light and Traction being counteracted by the heaviness of Lehigh Power securities and United Gas Improvement.

The outstanding feature was the aggressive bidding for local traction issues. Third bidding for local traction issues. Third to Avenue railway adjustment 5s spurted up that this has been done, but it was a more than 5 points to the year's highest price. Interborough, New York Railways and Manhattan Railways liens did not lag far behind, scoring gains of 1 to 2 points on large turnovers. Careful buying of high grade light and power issues accounted for numerous substantial advances.

Michigan Water Power Company

6% First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

Dated January 1, 1926. Due January 1, 1946. Interest payable January 1 and July 1 at the Standard Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago, Illinois, or, at the option of the holder, at the Michigan Trust Company, Grand Rapids, Michigan. Coupon bonds in interchangeable denominations of $1,000, $500 and $100, with privilege of registration as to principal. Redeemable in whole or in part on any interest date on sixty days' notice at 105 and accrued interest. The Company agrees to pay interest without deduction for any Federal Income Tax not exceeding 2% which the Company or Trustee may be required or permitted to pay at the source.

These bonds are tax exempt in the State of Michigan and have been authorized by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission.

From a letter from Mr. Albert E. Peirce, President of this Company, we summarize as follows;

BUSINESS AND PROPERTY: The Michigan Water Power Company was or-ganized under the laws of the State of Michigan to construct, acquire, own and operate two hydro-electric developments, with a total installed capacity of 7,200 horse power, on the Thorneapple River located at Cascade and Ada, about ten miles from the city of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Surety Pende will be deposited with the trustee Bonds will be deposited with the trustee guaranteeing completion of the construction program.

The full output of these two plants from the entire flow of the river has been contracted for by the Consumers Power Com-pany of Michigan for a period of fifty years and the Consumers Power Company will invest between $100,000 and $150,000 in transmission and sub-station equipment necessary to receive this energy which is to be sold to them at the lower dam about ten miles from Grand Rapids.

SECURITY: These bonds have been authorized by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission as First Mortgage Bonds and are, in the opinion of counsel, secured by a mortgage on all of the Company's property now owned or hereafter acquired, including land, flowage rights, generating plants and transmission lines connecting the dams having an appraised value in excess of $1,500,000, subject only to the above mentioned contract with the Consumers Power Company and to the prior lien created on said pany and to the prior lien created on said property by the terms thereof, which pro-vide that no mortgage shall impair the obli-gation of the Company under its contract and that in event of default under the conand that in event of default under the contract the Consumers Power Company shall have the right to possess and operate the property for the purpose of securing due performance of the contract. This contract for the entire current generated and all profits arising therefrom have been pledged under the Mortgage, thus assuring that all net earnings of the Company will be at all times available for the requirements of these bonds both principal and interest.

EARNINGS: Estimated earnings of the Company under its contract with the Consumers Power Company are as follows:

Estimated net earnings are, therefore, approximately 2.9 times interest charges on SINKING FUND: The mortgage provides for an annual sinking fund of 1% of the total amount of bonds issued, to be used to purchase or redeem bonds beginning January 1, 1928.

MANAGEMENT: Through common stock ownership the Michigan Water Power Company is a subsidiary of the Central Public Service Company, whose operating organization has successfully managed public utility properties, particularly hydroelectric, for a long period of years.

We offer these First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds if, as and when issued and received by us, subject to issue as glanned and to the approval of legal proceedings by Messrs. Chapman, Cutler & Parker of Chicago, for the Company, and by Messrs. Butler, Lamb, Foster and Pope of Chicago for the Bankers.

First Mortgage 20-Year 6 Per Cent Gold Bonds, Series "A"

Due January 1st, 1946 Interest payable January 1st and July 1st at the Chase National Bank in the City of New York, or at the office of the Central Trust Company of Illinois, Chicago, Trustee, without deduction for Federal Income Tax not in excess of two per cent per annum. Denominations $1,000, $800 and $100. Reimbursement of the Pennsylvania, California, Connecticut and Kansas taxes not to exceed four mills; Maryland four and one-half mills tax; District of Columbia and Kentucky five mills tax; Michigan five mills exemption tax; Virginia five and one-half mills tax and Massachusetts income tax not to exceed six per cent, to bolders upon proper and timely application, as provided in the mortgage.

CENTRAL TRUST COMPANY OF ILLINOIS, CHICAGO, TRUSTEE

The following is embodied in a letter from Mr. A. P. Barrett, President of the Company:

Business: The Texas-Louisiana Power Company will own and operate electric and gas properties serving without competition thirty-six communities in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico, the major portion of the service area being located in Texas. The territory served includes a large portion of north-eastern Texas, a country rich in agriculture, cotton being the most important of products. It is also an important oil territory. For many years this section has shown a consistent increase in population, and the total population to be served by the Texas-Louisiana Power Company is estimated to be in excess of 100,000

Properties:

The properties consist of sixteen fully equipped electric power plants with more than 400 miles of high tension and distributing lines, together with gas, water and artificial ice manufacturing plants. In addition, power is purchased at various points from the Texas Power & Light Co. under advan-

Security: These First Mortgage Bonds will be secured, in the opinion of counsel, by a direct first mortgage on all of the fixed property now owned by the Company as provided in the mortgage. The assets of the Texas-Louisiana Power Company will be substantially in excess of this total funded indebtedness, the properties, as appraised by Messrs. Hagenah & Erickson of Chicago, in December, 1925, having a present depreciated value of $4,703,371.

Earnings: The earnings of the properties now owned and being acquired by the Texas-Louisiana Power Company for the two years ended September 30th, 1924 and 1925, were as follows:

$928,356.02 $1,005,410.73 Operating Expenses, Maintenance and Taxes.... . 559,430.71 600,207.58 405,203.15 Interest on Entire Funded Debt (this issue).... 195,000.00

Net earnings as shown for the 1925 period are more than twice the amount required for the annual interest charges on this issue of bonds. Due to the fact that the earnings of the properties at Point, Emory, Megargel and Santo, Texas, were not available at the time of the audit, the earnings of these properties are not included in the above statement.

These bonds are offered when, as and if issued and received by us. All legal details in connection with the issue will be passed upon by Messrs. Chapman, Cutier and Parker of Chicago, for the Bankers, and Mr. Frank B. Black of Chicago, for the Company. The books and accounts have been audited by Messrs. Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Company, Certified Public Accountants. The properties have been examined and appraised by Messrs. Hagenah & Erickson, Engineers, of Chicago, and reviewed for the Bankers by Mr. Edward P. Smith, Valuator, of Chicago.

These Bends have been listed on the Chicago Stock Exchange.

The Foreman Banks

The ABC of Certain Types of Bonds

Do you know which bonds are best for YOU? Do you know why? Here is a simple guide.

The bonds you buy should fit your income, your own particular situation. What may be a good "buy" for your neighbor may not necessarily be the best for you. We will gladly assist you in selecting your purchases.

Why public utility bonds are considered so highly Investors favor bonds of public utility companies because they represent a virtual monopoly on a product that is essential to daily life. Electricity today is a necessity in community and industrial life. In America electricity has been developed to a greater extent than anywhere in the world.

Northern States Power Co. 1st & Gen. . 5½% Dec. 1, 1950 $100 5.50%

Kentucky Utilities Co. 1st Mtge.

5½% Oct. 1, 1955 98½ 7.50% Central Illinois Public Serv. Co. 1st & Ref. Toledo Trac, Light & Power Co. 51% July 15, 1930 99 5.73% United Light & Power Co. Deb. 6% Nov. 1, 1975 92 6.85% Western United Gas & Elec. Co. 1st Mtge. 5 1/2 % Dec. 1, 1955 99 5.55%

Safety of municipal bonds balances their lower earnings

On larger incomes, security-purchasers frequently favor municipal bonds because the income from them, although lower, is exempt from Federal Taz. Thus a better "buy" in the long run.

We own and offer the following tax-exempt municipal bonds, subject to prior sale:

Cook County Forest Preserve Dist. 4% Feb. 19, 1936 Orleans Parish, La., School Dist. 414 % Dec. 1, 1932 State of Alabama, Highway . . 4% Dec 1, 1949 Omaha, Nebraska, Direct Obligation . . . 5% July i, 1939 4-25% Dyer County, Tenn., Highway 4%% April 1, 1999 469%

Our bond department is fully equipped to handle any investment requirements.

The bonds listed here are but a few of our current offerings cited as examples of types which we handle. These are all quoted subject to prior sale and change in price. Whatever your bond requirements, we have competent experts to counsel you, and execute your orders

WANTED-MALE RELP. Salesmen, Solicitors. Etc. AN OPEN LETTER.

SALESMEN AND SALES MANAGERS. Dear Sir: I would like to meet men no think they are worth and want e opportunity to earn FIVE TO FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS A YEAR. For twenty years I sold millions of dollars' worth of real estate, achieving an experience that money cannot buy, and that is to work with the public and for the public.

Chicago, however, is the only city in the world to capitalize on my experience. I only wish that those who are inquisitive would call at my office so I may prove to them by certified facts that since in Chicago I sold only A1 selected, profit making real estate, thus making my customers a nice profit, and I will continue to make money for the people for the reason that I am the sole owner and able to offer the property at the right price.

I haven't any doubt that to the real estate world I am known to own the best located. property. On one subdivision alone I am offered over $100,000 profit, wholesale price, but I won't sell, for my greatest ambition is to be the leader in Chicago in continuing to sell the right property at the right price and give a " square deal.

I want to meet the salesman who will help me put that over. I want him to sign his own ticket. I will give him a private car, chauffeur, office and display advertisement. He does not have to have real estate experience. I will him give all the co-operation. I will let him as give the public a variety of a lot or lots out of my fourteen fully improved subdivisions I own, and when purchaser will have made his first payment on a lot, a corporation will give him a contract paying the balance due on the lot, building home to suit. with no cash down on home, only monthly payments of as low as 1%, if responsible. Purchaser also gets an insurance protection, assuring the heirs a clear title to the home in case of death, regardless of how much there is still due on the home. You can easily understand how fast our properties will develop, making a wonderful investment for those who do not want to build.

You owe it to yourself and beloved ones to spend a half hour to investigate our proposition and our set-up. We mean business and we are putting it over big, making it possible for you to make more money in 1926 than you ever will be able to make with any firm in any
